The two brothers, Richard, Jr., and Edward, with the forming of St. Paul's Parish further west, moved with their families and some neighbors into the new parish. Other families were Terrys, Winstons, Hendersons, Williams, etc. This land was in Hanover Co., cut off from New Kent, 1720.

6th Generation Continued

An Edward Bullock took land grants (Edward, Jr. on Hanover records) in Hanover Co. Wife named Ann. Son of Richard, Jr. Called Edward, Jr., to avoid confusion with uncle by same name.
 1721 grant on upper side Beaver Dam Creek.
 1723 grant at fork of Licking Hole Creek and Little River.
 1751 bought land adjoining the first grant. When estate was settled circa 1760, land was sold that had been entered by Richard Bullock, Jr. (his father) in Hanover Co.

7th Generation

James and John Bullock inherited the 1723 grant of Edward Bullock, Jr., between 1756, when John Bullock proccessioned land for "my father", and circa 1760 when the land was proccessioned by James and John Bullock in Louisa Co., which had been cut off from Hanover in 1742. The Hanover land was proccessioned by Edward Bullock (Cont). This proves that Edward, James and John were legal heirs of Edward Bullock who died circa 1759-60 intestate. Mary Bullock, who married Hezekiah Rice, is presumed to be a member of this family by some genealogical authorities. Moved to Granville Co., N. C. Richard Bullock, son of Edward Bullock and wife Sarah, was the progenitor of the N.C. Bullocks.

Agnes and Rebecca Wingfield were the daughters of John Wingfield and Sarah Garland, daughter of John Garland and Ann, his wife. John Garland was a son of Edward Garland, d. 1719 New Kent Co., Va., and Jane, his wife. (Research by Agnes Bullock)

Hezekiah and Ann Rice presumed to be brother and sister. Descendants of Thos. Rice b. in England. To Virginia 1693. Lived in Hanover Co. (Ref.- History and Gen. by Miller)

James Bullock, 7th Generation. (1735 - 1813)
1st wife, Rebecca Wingfield; 2nd wife, Ann Waller.

Dr. J. J. Bullock, grandson of James Bullock, in quoting family history, called him James, Jr., but no legal document or official records name him as such. The Va. records proved he was legal heir of Edward Bullock, d. circa 1759. His tombstone in the Lexington, Kentucky cemetery, gives birth date Feb. 23, 1735; death June 29, 1813.

"History of Woodford Co., Ky." by Railey, states that James and Edward Bullock were brothers and they married sisters, Rebecca and Agnes Wingfield. A manuscript in the Ky. Historical Library, entitled "Annie Waller's Descendants", gives the same information. Gives his origin Spotsylvania Co., Va., but records prove he was from Hanover Co.; 2nd wife from Spotsylvania Co. The manuscript was dictated by Dr. J. J. Bullock and Mrs. Barbara Thomson and signed by Mrs. Betty Bryan.

From all evidence James Bullock lived on his Louisa County inheritance, as he enlisted in the French and Indian War from that county. Served in company of volunteers under Capt. Wm. Phillips. His name is listed from Louisa Co. when he signed a deed of trust with John Cosby, Aug. 1, 1766, for their nephew, Wm. Cosby, son of Chas. Cosby and Elizabeth Wingfield.

James Bullock and Rebecca, his wife, sold their Louisa Co. land of 240 A. in 1768. Rebecca died between 1770, when she signed her Louisa Co. dower, and 1773, when he married Ann Waller, daughter of John Waller and <sup>Agnes</sup> Ann Carr, daughter of Thos. Carr. (Va. Gen. by Hayden quotes record of marriage in Berkley Parish)

The name of James Bullock next appears on Hanover Co. tax lists, inclusive of 1787. Land lay next to that of Edward Bullock on Beaver Dam Creek and Little River, an inheritance from Edward Bullock, a 1721 land grant. Will of John Waller, probated 1776 in Spotsylvania Co., named daughter, Ann Bullock and son-in-law, James Bullock, and named him one of the Executors.

Feb. 14, 1780, Capt. Wm. Phillips swore before the Louisa County Court that James Bullock served under him in a company of volunteers in the French and Indian War. James Bullock went before the Hanover Court March 2, 1780, and made oath he served under Capt. Wm. Phillips from Louisa Co. in the French and Indian War, and had not previously made application for land.

The first census of Virginia, taken 1782, records James Bullock with 11 in family, 17 slaves, Precinct No. 5. List of Thos. Trevlian.

Hanover tax list 1787, St. Martin's Parish, records these slaves owned by James Bullock, 1787: Tom, Davey, Ede, Charles, Will, Libb, Jane, Judy, Bett, Zilphey, Hester, Dick, Tom, Phillis, Jack, Peter and Crete.

A letter written by John Waller Johnston in Virginia to Waller Overton in Kentucky, states in part, "I sent by my uncle James Bullock in the spring, 1788, sundry land warrants". (Letter owned by Mrs. Sallie Bullock Cave, Lexington, Ky.)

- Mordecai Redd Bullock was a Whig in his youth and follower of Henry Clay, whom he knew well. Later he became a Democrat. Although a resident of Illinois, he advocated the Southern Cause in the War between the States, as did his brother, Thomas Bullock, founder of Woodford County, Ill. Thomas Bullock made his home in Woodford County a refuge for escaped Southern prisoners of war in the North. One such refugee married his daughter, Mary Ware Bullock, and took her back to Kentucky to live. The Elmores of Lancaster, Kentucky, are descendants. Wingfield Bullock, son of Mordecai Redd Bullock, was a Northern soldier, and his cousin, Thomas Bullock, was a lieutenant in the Northern army.
